

I oppose the weakening of the telephone privacy law. This has given me and my family more peace at home than we have had in a long time. Solicitors do not have the right to invade the privacy of my home.